COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES.

The list for the term of argument court which begins on April 30, has been prepared. It contains eighty-two cases.

The will of John S. Thomas, late of this city, was admitted to probate yesterday by Register of Wills Kohler and letters testamentary granted to William S. Thomas.

An appeal from the award of arbitrators was filed yesterday in the case of James W. Walsh, executor, against the Dwellings House Insurance company of Boston.

George R. McLaughlin, tax collector of Jefferson township, yesterday filed his bond in court, and had it approved. It is in the sum of $1,000 and has John F. Van Sickle and Theodore Mitchell for sureties.

E. E. Hackett yesterday began an action in ejectment against Flora Fleisher and Cora Van Duvier to obtain possession of a lot of land on Delaware street in the Thirteenth ward. It is claimed by the plaintiff that he purchased the property at a county treasurer's sale of land.

Marriage licenses were granted by Clerk of the County, Thomas yesterday to William J. Barnes and Maggie Whelan, Scranton; Frank H. Barker and Cora M. Hamon, Archbald; James D. Morgan and Anna T. Murray, Scranton; William Harsine and Mary Gallagher, Winton.

DRIVERS QUARREL AND FIGHT.

One of Them Arrested and Bound Over for Trial in Court.

Two drivers, E. B. Kham and Oliver Perry, indulged in a row in front of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station, yesterday morning, as a result of which the former was severely choked and pounded, while the latter is now under bonds to appear for trial at the next term of criminal court.

At the conclusion of the matter the beaten man tied himself to the office of Alderman Wright and swore out a warrant for the arrest of his assailant, who later was arraigned before the magistrate. A number of drivers were summoned as witnesses, but the prisoner did not particularly deny the offense charged. On the contrary he seemed to think that one of the names applied to him was a sufficient justification of the assault. This Alderman Wright did not deem a sufficient excuse and so held Perry for court in the sum of $500. Peter Mallaney, of 345 Adams avenue, became his bondsmen.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Wedding of Miss Elmina Whiting and Randolph Brunner.

IT WAS A VERY PRETTY AFFAIR

Ceremony Witnessed by a Number of Out-of-town Persons—Mrs. Sarah A. Waters Laid to Rest—Funeral of Mrs. Margaret Connors Will Be Held Tomorrow Morning—Other News Items.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 1049 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

Miss Elmina Whiting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Whiting, of Hampton street, and Randolph F. Brunner, of Carbondale, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride at 9 o'clock on Monday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. W. Cooper. Promptly at 9 o'clock the couple came into the parlor, preceded by Miss Ella Raynor, maid of honor, and Richard Price as best man. The bride was neatly attired in a rich brown costume and carried a beautiful bouquet of bridal roses. The bridesmaid wore a similar costume and carried a bouquet of Marshal Neil roses. The presents were numerous and costly. The out-of-town guests were Rev. Cornell, of Eastonville; Mr. and Mrs. George Goodrich, Carbondale; Mr. and Mrs. Della Fountain, Forest City; J. S. Whiting, Foster. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hinam and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd, and Mrs. Walker and family, Mr. Fellows and family, Mr. Prestwood, Kresge and W. Wardell.

Funeral of Miss Sarah A. Waters.

Many friends gathered at the home of Ebenezer Williams on Chestnut street yesterday morning at 9 o'clock to attend the funeral of Miss Sarah A. Waters. The services were conducted by Rev. L. C. Floyd, D. D., pastor of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, and were very impressive. A quartette consisting of Miss Grace Becker, Miss Ella Goodhall, William Beck and Professor William Jones sang several selections. The pall bearers were J. D. Williams, Robert Williams, William Williams and Daniel Evans. The remains were conveyed to Forty Fort for interment.

Funeral of Mrs. Connors.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Connors, wife of James Connors, who died at her home, 537 North Broadway avenue, on Monday evening at a late hour will occur tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. A solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. Patrick's church. Interment in the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Connors had been ill but a short time and her death was unexpected. She was 53 years of age and is survived by her husband and four children, namely, Mrs. Martha Ferguson, Mrs. Hugh Kerrigan, Lizzie Connors and James Connors. Mrs. Connors was a loving mother and a kind neighbor and wife.

Meeting of Board of Trade.

The West Side board of trade held a brief but interesting meeting last night. In reference to the Round Woods project William Farrell, a member of the committee, reported progress. Councilman Davies stated that in conversation with Park Commissioner Ripple, the latter stated that owing to the amount of work which is being done by the officials of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company in New York city the matter has been allowed to rest, but that there was no fear on Mr. Ripple's part that the Round Woods would be made a park. Common Councilman Davies spoke at length concerning the viaduct and said that the councilmen in their action at the time of its defeat were wholly sincere and that had the ordinance been properly framed it would have been passed.

The nomination of officers for the coming year were then made. Those nominated were: President, D. M. Jones; for vice president, William Farrell; T. Fellows, Mason; for secretary, Charles E. Daniels; treasurer, A. E. Eynon; W. R. Williams and A. M. Moore. The selection of officers will take place at the next meeting.

Shorter Paragraphs.

The library committee of the Hyde Park free library and reading room will meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock. An entertainment and cake social will be given in the Tabernacle Congregational church this evening by the young people.

Miss Ida Phillips, Maggie Lewis and Ida Davis, of Providence, called on West Side friends last evening.
